I. Purpose

The purpose of this directive is to implement procedures to ensure that the University of Pennsylvania Police Department (UPPD) and its employees conform to the Federal Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, as well as the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as they relate to the possessing of firearms and ammunition by anyone who is the subject of a domestic violence injunction or protection order.

II. Policy

The UPPD recognizes that domestic violence is a serious issue that is present at all levels of society; that court ordered injunctions to protect victims of domestic violence from further abuse must be enforced to be effective; and that the availability of firearms must be restricted to ensure the safety of the victims.

The UPPD, as a law enforcement agency, reserves the right to review any domestic violence injunction or protection order of which an employee is a subject; implement procedures to restrict the availability of firearms and ammunition by such employee; reassign a member to administrative duties; and conduct an administrative investigation of any incident(s) which led to the filing of the injunction or protection order.

Current Federal Statutes prohibit anyone who is the subject of a domestic violence injunction from having in his/her possession any firearm or ammunition. 18 USC, Section 925(a)(1), Federal Statutes has been interpreted to exempt law enforcement officers from the firearm prohibition while on-duty. However, the UPPD believes that it is in the best interest of all parties that the member be assigned to administrative duties.

III. Scope

This directive shall affect all sworn police officers.

IV. Procedures
A. Receipt of A Domestic Violence Restraining Order Or Injunction

1. Any officer who becomes the subject of a domestic violence restraining order or injunction shall notify the shift supervisor on duty and provide the shift supervisor with a copy of the order or injunction immediately upon being served with the document.

The Shift Commander shall then notify the Superintendent of Police, the Captain of Patrol and the Deputy Chief of Investigations of his/her actions.

2. Firearms and ammunition shall remain in the UPPD Armory until such time as the injunction or order ceases to be in effect or the officer separates from employment while the injunction or order is still in effect.

C. Serving Protection Orders Upon Law Enforcement Personnel
1. Any UPPD officer requested to serve a protection order upon a Philadelphia Police Department (PPD) officer shall immediately contact the PennComm Center who shall notify the PPD Radio Room and request that a PPD officer and supervisor be dispatched. It shall not be construed as the creation of a higher legal standard of safety or care in an evidentiary sense with respect to third party claims insofar as the employer’s or employee’s legal duty as imposed by law. Violations of policy will only form the basis for departmental administrative sanctions. Violations of law will form the basis for civil and criminal sanctions in a recognized judicial setting.
